

CONTENTS

Introduction

- ‘From Institutional Critique to Hospitality: Aspects and Contexts of Bio Art’/Assimina Kaniari 9

Part I. Bio Art as Institutional Critique and Hospitality: Artists’ Statements

- ‘Dear Bees and Microbes’/Kathy High. 33
- ‘Three Questions: A Holy Trinity or Three Blind Mice?’/
Suzanne Anker and Assimina Kaniari. 37
- ‘Representation in Bio art: Movement and Change’/
Marta de Menezes 51
- ‘Fabrica Vitae. The Fabric of Life’/Pascale Pollier 63
- ‘Apropos Fabrica Vitae’/Assimina Kaniari in conversation with Aggelos Antonopoulos 67
- ‘Bioart and Conditions for Emergence’/Ellen K. Levy 73
- ‘iGMO: inherited Genetic Modification Orgiastics. Philosophy of the Biological Bedroom, a Prelude for Transgenic Humans’/
Adam Zaretsky 87
- ‘Text, Code and the Arts of Bio-age’/Ioannis Melanitis. 105

Part II. Critical and Historical Approaches on Bio Art

- ‘Artists in Labs. Pros and a few Cons’/Martin Kemp. 117
- ‘Stranger Connections. On Xenotransfusion and Art’/
Robert Zwijnenberg. 129

‘Painting and the extension of life: Leonardo’s bio pictorial tactics after 1500’/Assimina Kaniari	139
‘Specters of the Animal: The Transgenic Work of Eduardo Kac’/ Gunalan Nadarajan	163
‘Hosting the Animal: the Art of Kathy High’/ Irina Aristarkhova	171